To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept my whole-hearted, unqualified recommendation of Mr. George Krajewski as a teacher, speaker, communicator, and sales trainer.

As Founder and CEO of Quma Learning Systems, Inc., I have spent my life in the field of human development, teaching and training some of the most respected multi-national corporations on the planet. I have seen many speakers and many trainers during that time. George Krajewski is one of the most authentic and impactful I have ever met. His life's experience and the skills he has applied in his own highly-successful sales career make his message relevant, timely, and valuable to anyone looking to increase sales performance and results.

We think so highly of George that he is one of a very select cadre of trainers that we choose when we look for world-class sales trainers and keynote speakers. He has worked with my company as a presenter/sales trainer, and has been an integral part of a semi-annual sales school that we have presented to a national sales organization over the past three years. George's experience and mastery of the subject matter combined with his passion and practiced public speaking skills make him an extraordinary presenter and teacher.

George pours his energy and passion into his presentations and it shows in the way his audiences respond to him. He relates well with any size group, large or small, and has consistently received top-level evaluations from both the audiences themselves and the leaders who hire him.

Please feel free to call me at 480-545-8311, if you would like further detail.

Sincerely,

Dennis R Deaton, DMD
